

Dear Mr. Kal'Dire,

FRIEND is thankful that you were honest. It is amusing that you obeyed the letter of the request, and did not provide information about what kind of person you are.

Here is unique artifact as reward. Further replies will not be so expeditious.

FRIEND will give further rewards if:

You send expedition to locate Blue Pit within Ultralands, and throw single white stone into depths.

To write back, feed your letter to any animal that has tasted blood.

Sincerely,

FRIEND
