we lost a bunch of weak-rats mining but they didnt haf strong frends so its fine and no one cares and we got a LOTTA GOLD (she said to write loud sorry)

gave sum smart-rats gold and toldem go buy things Went south over the Peaks of Misfortune and things were WEIRD towns didnt have many people-prey but they gave us gold anyway? they had other-rat-people who spoke funnie. they didnt want our own gold just looked around then gave their gold so thats nice traders went to Keytan Leege and they liked our gold and gave us some food-fish and some cool pet-birds. small though they wouldn't sell us the BIG animals frowny face traders went 2 knights place but they didnt like us v much we still bought some random stuff but they dont really HAVE much to buy dumb-rat-traders went into ultralands and didnt come back but id had their gold swapped with painted wood so who cares (this is maddy i care my friend jibbly was with them and he owes me five teeth)

oh!!! also!!! man-things from kayton leeg attaked few of surface-rat-places sum got killed sum got captured sum escaped?? was just a leeel attack tho, ships sailed up, people got out, took stuff, then got back on ship and left. like mebe its how they say hello anyway i had the survivors fight till half were gone then gave bonus treats to the survivors and now they work for me at thongabababmark

Thongmor

Thagm

Thgm (how do i spell thgmadsdrokc???)

mountain place trainyng is going goodwill, i wanted to get them better at fighting above ground so i had them go try and climb the horn mountains some died but the others found a lot of dead guys who had better armor so we stole that so SCORE now some people have armor instead of not
