

Mansa Sino'otilo, The Shark King of the Keitan League,

I greet you. Though you are far, word of you and yours have reached us. That you farm the vastness is a feat worthy of praise. That you search out leviathan spawn is a feat worthy of the mad and those forged in the legends of lost times.

We seek to know more about you and yours. At the least we hope to engage in friendly rapport, it had been many long forevers since the tribes have had cause to reach beyond itself, but we wish to be prepared.

Should you have any questions, I would be pleased to answer.

Long may you have sweet water and the wind guide you,

Soot Scale, Assembly Leader

Vulkerath Soot Scale

As scribed by under secretary Annoria Twin Sight
