

An envelope of high quality parchment arrives bundled with your other correspondence addressed simply with "To Whom it May Concern."

Directions included within the envelope instruct a Carrier how to navigate letters addressed to Princess Alvaerelle into a specific region of the Ultralands.

Additionally, the envelope contains the following painting and inscription.

*Why don't you see me?
Invisible like starlight
I ping between skies*

*

*Invisible like starlight
It takes forever
To get your attention, dear*

*

*It takes forever
For you to touch me
Like I wish you would*

*

*For you to touch me
I have to traverse planets
Why don't you see me?*
