

Dear Rahastan besties,

Do you believe in pants? I am informed that some cultures buy heavily into the superstition of leg garments. I am lead to believe that your country is home to a large variety of species, do each of them wear different pants? Do you ask your mother tree for pants?

Did your mother tree invent pants or were they a natural occurrence from your fauna? Does your fauna know that you think they exist? Do they discuss doubts in your own existence? Are you actually just RT from the Infiltration division?

Have you ever been to Embassy? Are you going to go on an expedition to see if its real? Is anything real in our swamp? Is anything real outside of it? Do you let your mother tree decide what is real and is fake? Are you friends with Dun Sancerre? They killed me and that's how I ended up here.

You are the only one who can help us.

*Signed,
Elder Flynn, of the Eternal Dominion of the Crab*
