

Im just gonna put all the links i find here (mostly in order) like a playthrough of sorts

<https://www.yyyyyyy.info/> = saw this being referenced in sources (in the link above) and thought it was cool

<http://farragofiction.com/TheInternOpensHisEyes/> = i feel like i don't need to put many more unless i find something that isn't in the chapter index of arm 2 at the very top.

<http://farragofiction.com/TheInternOpensHisEyes/ParkingLot/> = huh, i might be adding more links than i thought. (who is _? The other is Parker. Right now my money's on Vik just because of the censorship theme they have going on [just scrolled down on the link below and it looks like im right])

<http://farragofiction.com/AdventureSimWest/?nostalgia=witness.txt> = all right, i know i said i wouldn't put stuff that's already cataloged neatly away in the top link, BUT YOU GET TO INTERACT WITH THE CHARACTERS AT SPECIFIC EVENTS?!?!?!?!?!?!?!?! WHERE DO I SIGN?!?!?!?!?

lostinzampanio.neocities.org/spheresofinfluence = fantastic. More things. Why on earth wouldn't there be more. It's not like the developer likes to take things easy apparently. Though this does have a lot of useful info (and links)
