

Rememberist: Hello YouTube. It is me, the Rememberist of Zampanio. Instead of an exploration log today, I once again have an interview with a very interesting girl, who is very, very interesting. Her name is the Rememberist of Zampanio, and she's going to tell you all about the things she has remembered and discovered. And also, maybe we will learn a little something about birds along the way.

Rememberist: Hello Rememberist. It's great to be here. I do want to ask why you're leaning a little British. Aren't you American?

Rememberist: Haha, good one. I'm from Naples, Italy. And more importantly, I'm from the maze. Aren't you from the maze?

Rememberist: So true, Rememberist. I feel so silly for asking you when I'm so obviously from the maze, too. And when you're so obviously the real Rememberist. So Rememberist, I'd like to ask you a first question before I ask you more questions. How did you get into Zampanio?

Rememberist: Aren't I asking the questions here? Hahahahehe, well, that's fine. I got into Zampanio about a week and change ago when a wonderful friend of mine called the Puppeteer of the Lost decided I'd be a good fit for it. We happened to be on a server together, and one thing led to another, and bada bing bada bang I'm remembering here.

Rememberist: I guess we're both asking the questions. Very nice. Very nice. So the Puppeteer brought you in just like Cheesy. Great. And when you joined, what did you do first?

Rememberist: Personally, I started with the question mark next to the North door.

Rememberist: Oh wow. So did I. Craaazy. After spending a very long time scrolling through it until my friends in voicechat were begging me to realize it was infinite I started poking around the South and the train car. But it was the gopher maze that really hooked me. I think. Do you remember how you got into the discord?

Rememberist: Sure do Rememberist. I actually wandered into the link in the gopher maze very early on and told the Puppeteer I wasn't ready for it quite yet because I knew exactly what would happen if I joined that Discord. I had more to explore, first of all. And second of all, I knew just how obsessed I'd get. So, I was still tasting. And then, after reading a whole bunch of waypoints and poking my head South again, I realized I desperately wanted to join. But I couldn't find that Discord link anymore.

Rememberist: Oh no. What did you do then? Give up, leave, exit?

Rememberist: Hahahaha, not in my wildest dreams. Nah. I just found a map of the gopher maze. One that confused me more than the maze itself, mind you, and spent a very long time meticulously pouring over it to find the right route back to the Discord link I saw. And then I joined. The rest is history. Or well, I guess remember story.

Rememberist: Good one. Great one. LOL. XD. Hahahah, hehehehahe, lol. Um, so you're in the Discord and you're looking around. It must have taken you a while to get thread perms, right? How'd you spend the time?

Rememberist: In the true general thread, people were talking about narratives. In particular, they wanted to know what happens when a character dooms a narrative rather than the alternative. So, of course, I was really, uh, I was really, really excited, and ended up posting a lot of emojis trying to communicate, but I accidentally shut the whole thing down. They ended up trying to decipher me. The good part was that was when I first interacted with the Medium^2 of Spiders, who ended up giving me a lot of canvas to send emojis with. What a helpful thing to do. Smiley face.

Rememberist: Um, you know {,#####$,,,,{{{}}

Rememberist: Uh, honestly I have to say North. I love East but sometimes it can get so overwhelming, and South's Truths are really, really interesting, but sometimes I just want a good story you know. I want to get immersed. I want to eat out of Zampanio's hand. I want to eat out of Zampanio's hand. I want to get immersed. Uh you, uh, uh you know, haha. But the more I've been investigating East, the more I've... I really like it now. Zampanio is a really fun game. You should play it. Zampanio is a really fun game. You should play it. Zampanio is a really fun G. You should pell... Zampanio is a really fun ga...

Rememberist: me, you should play it. My next question, and one I like to ask everyone on these logs, what do you want to be remembered for?

Rememberist: Oh, wow. Big question. Ahaha. I guess it doesn't matter what I'm remembered for, as long as I'm remembered forever, right? As long as you don't forget about me. Don't forget about me. As long as you don't forget. As long as you don't forget about me. As long as you don't forget about me. As long as you don't forget about me. As long as you don't forget about me, I don't care. I don't care what I'm remembered for as long as you don't forget about me. Ahahaha. Or I guess I hope someday they say she posted real good, you know, or they like my gay thoughts about the Closer.

Rememberist: I love you. Can we make more of these?

Rememberist: All the time. Yes, we can. Yes, let's make more and more and we'll be remembered and... Scatter!

[Scattering sounds]

Rememberist: Uh, hello. What the fuck?
